

Feb. 5th: Continuing the Discussion Mid-Week

“Do it God’s Way – Watch What you Say!”

Dear Parents,

This past Friday, if you participated in Family Night, you will have made an unforgettable faith impression with your children! If you would like to keep the conversation going, you will find some “conversation ideas” below. Have you had a chance to try the neat experiment Tamzyn did on Sunday for the Children’s Feature? If not, why not try this lesson tonight and follow it up with a few (or all) of the scriptures and questions listed below.

Your words are powerful, and God wants us to use our words to build others up! God wants us to use our words to build others up, and not tear them down. But that can be so hard! With God’s help, we can heal people with our words and not hurt them.

Bible Verses About Taming Your Tongue:

- James 3:1-12 | Taming The Tongue
- Proverbs 21:23 | Your Tongue Can Get You into Trouble
- Ephesians 4:29 | Build People Up With Your Words
- Proverbs 12:18 | Your Words Can Either Kill or Heal
- James 1:26 | A Stern Reminder About Controlling Your Tongue

Family Time Questions About Taming Your Tongue:

- Why are words so powerful?
- Why is it so hard to control our tongues?
- What are some good examples of using your words to build others up?
- Can you think of a time when someone used their words to encourage you?
